

The history

For Ile not kill thee there, nor there, nor there,
But by the forge that stichied Mars his helme:
Ile kill thee euery where, yea ore and ore.
You wisest Grecians, pardon me this brag,
His insolence drawes folly from my lips,
But ile endeouour deeds to match these words,
Or may I neuer —

Ajax. Do not chafe thee cozen,
And you Achilles, let these threats alone,
Till accident or purpose bring you too't,
You may haue euery day enough of Hector,
If you haue stomack. The generall state I feare,
Can scarce entreate you to be odde with him.

Hect. I pray you let vs see you in the field,
We haue had pelting warres since you refusd, the Grecians
Achil. Dooft thou entreate me Hector? (cause,
To morow do I meet thee fell as death: to night all friends.

Hect. Thy hand vpon that match.
Agam. First all you Peeres of Greece, go to my tent,
There in the full conuiue we: afterwards
As Hectors leisure, and your bounties shall Concurre together, senerally entreate him
To taste your bounties, let the trumpets blowe,
That this great souldier may his welcome know. Exeunt.

Troy. My Lord Ulysses, tell me I beseech you,
In what place of the field doth Calcas keepe.

Ulyss. At Menelans tent, most princely Troilus:
There Diomed doth feast with him to night,
Who neither looks vpon the heauen nor earth,
But giues all gaze, and bent of amorous view,
On the faire Cressida.

Troyl. Shall I sweete Lord be bound to you so much,
After we part from Agamemnons tent,
To bring me thether.

Ulyss. You shall command me sit.
But gentle tell me of what honor was
This Cressida in Troy? had she no louer there
That wailes her absence?

Troyl.

of Troilus and Cresseida.

Tro. O sir to such as boasting shew their skarres,
A mocke is due; will you walke on my Lord,
Shee was beloued my Lord, she is, and doth,
But full sweet loue is food for fortunes tooth. Exeunt.

Enter Achilles and Patroclus.

Ach. Ile heate his blood with greekish wine to night,
Which with my Cemitar ile cool to morrow,
Patroclus let vs feast him to the hight

Pat. Here comes Thersites. Enter Thersites.

Ach. How now thou cur re of enuy.
Thou cruelly batch of nature whats the news?

The. Why thou picture of what thou seemest, and Idoll,
Of idiot worshippers, heers a letter for thee.

Ach. From whence fragment.

The. Why thou full dish of foole from Troy,

Pat. Who keeps the tent now.

The. The Surgeons box or the patients wound.

Pat. Well said aduersity, and what needs this tricks,

The. Prithee be silent box I profit not by thy talke,
Thou art said to be Achilles male varlot,

Pat. Male varlot you rogue whats that.

The. Why his inasculine whore, now the rotten diseases of the south, the guts griping ruptures: loades a grauell in the back, lethergies, could palsies, rawe eies, durtrottē liuers, whissing lungs, bladders full of impostume. Sciaticaes. line-kills, itch palme, incurable bone-ach, and the riuelled tee simple of the tetter, take and take againe such preposterous discoueries.

Pat. Why thou damnable box of enuy thou what meanes thou to curse thus.

The. do I curse thee.

Pat. Why no you ruinous but, you horson indistinguishi-able cur, no.

The. No why art thou then exasperate, thou idle immaterial skeine of sleine silke, thou greene sacenec flap for a fore eye, thou tosell of a prodigalls purse: thou ah how the poore world is pestred with such water flies, diminutives of nature.
